J. Lowell, master of the New York State Grange, and Clifford S. Sims, item resident and general manager of York State Grange, and Clifford S. Sims, vice-president and general manager of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad.

"For years past," Gov. Whitman said to-day, "the increasing cost of living has been a subject of growing importance and has perhaps become of first importance to the people of our State. Last year I recommended and secured increased appropriations for the Department of Foods and Markets.

Problems for Legislature.

"The Legislature this winter should, it eems to me, take up the whole prot in a broad constructive manner. The problem is difficult and intricate. I have decided to appoint a committee to assist the Executive and the Legislature in investigating and preparing such recom-mendations and legislation as may tend to bring about a reduction of the cost of foodstuffs to the consumer through
